

Halloween Concert on Lake Pinehurst

Glenn and Jo (we think) dress up for the Halloween concert

Cold and cloudy weather requires some warm costumes...

...and hot beverages

What is Halloween without the resident wonderful witch

"Blue Magic" has his favorite location and is ready for the music

Frank, our LPA president, is on the lake with family and friends

Boaters continue to arrive with snacks and beverages

Hi Jo and Glenn; is that a yellow parrot?

Glenn, Jo and friends crank up the music

Is that a vampire or the Count of Monte Pinehurst?

And yes, it is an election year

Everyone is dressed up on this boat

A great duet

These are few of the 20 boats that came to listen and enjoy

There is that parrot again or is it just someone in costume?

More boats, all dressed for warm weather as the trees change color

As always, we have at least one boat with a dog

Glenn (if that is really Glenn) brings the concert down to the boats

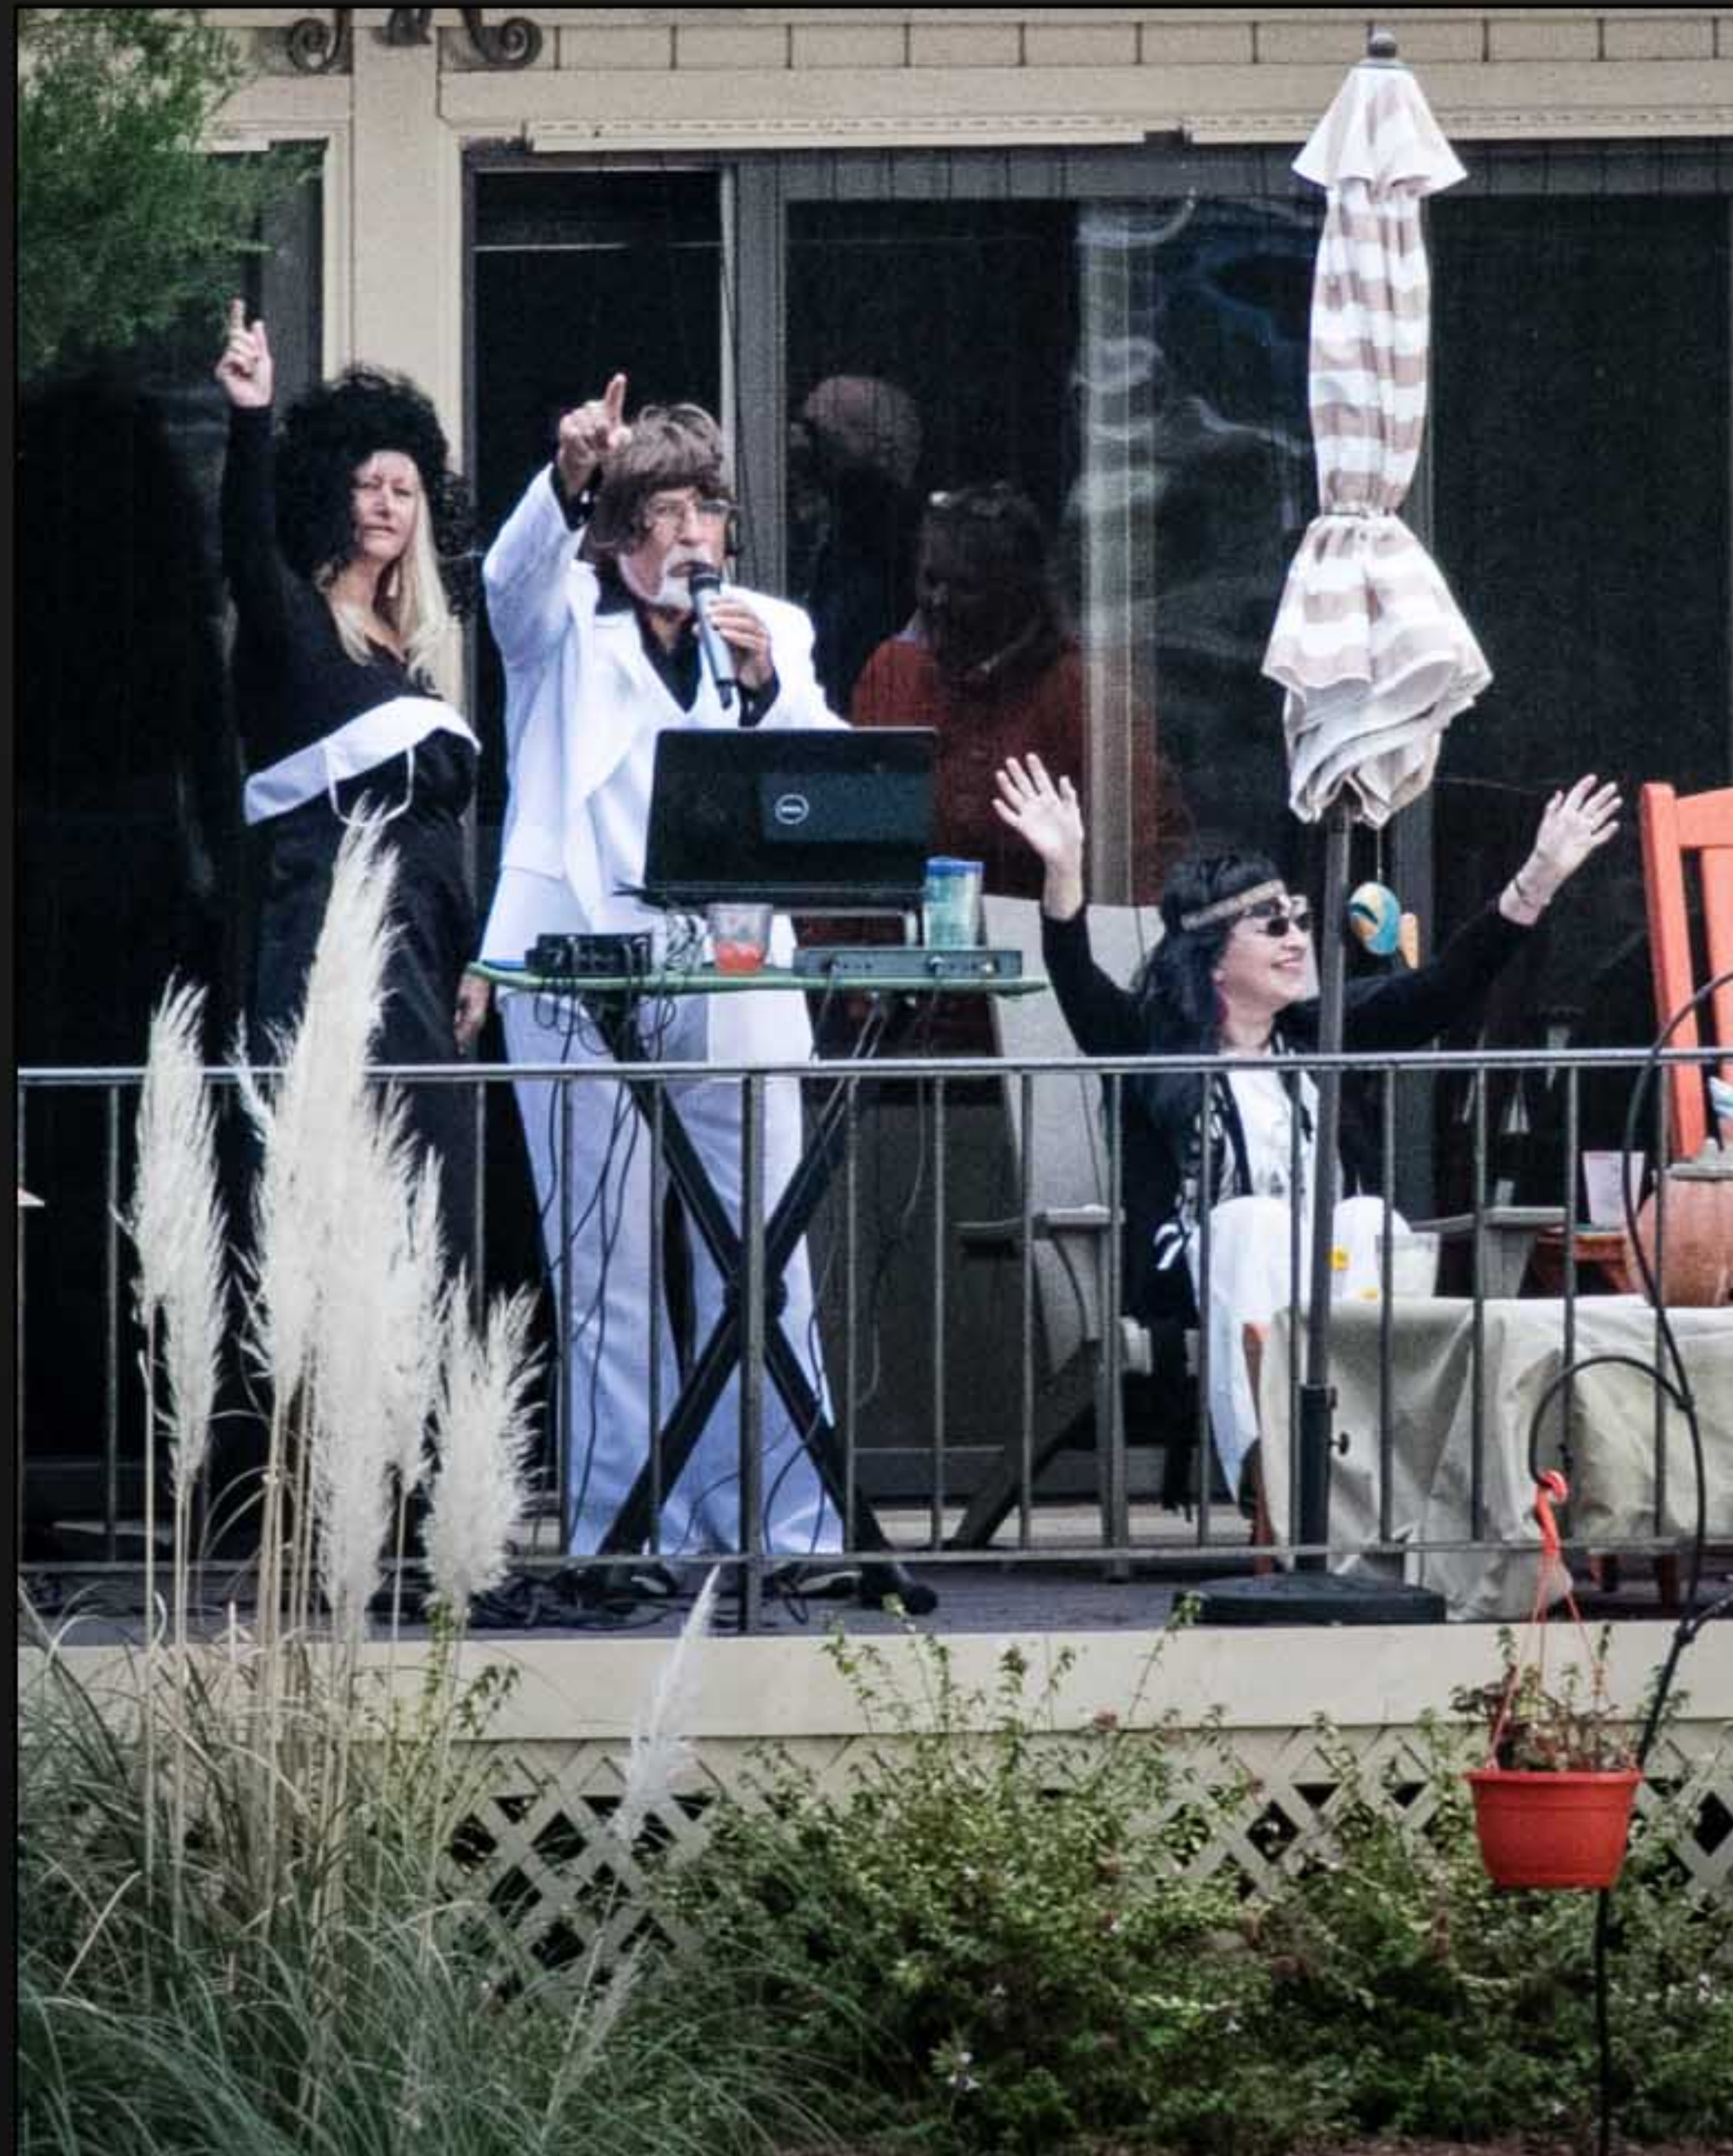

These ladies really got the boats rockin and rollin...

...and shakin and bakin!

Are they the "Pointer" twins?

Jo brings her Halloween magic to the boaters

Is this the way the Supremes got started?

Hi Lake Pinehurst boaters, you are great

Yes, we are proud to be Americans!!!

The concert is beginning to wind down

Glenn bids farewell as the boats start home

ELVIS HAS LEFT THE BUILDING

Thank you Jo and Glenn for a summer of great concerts
